

education and/for social justice

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

The third edition of the International Conference of the journal “Scuola Democratica” (June 3-6, 2024, University of Cagliari) is devoted to the needs and prospects of “Education and/for social justice”. The conference will be held in-presence.

Theoretical reflections and empirical analyses (qualitative and quantitative, large-scale, or focused on specific contexts) that aim at identifying the plurality of factors that contribute to producing inclusion/exclusion, equality/inequality, and recognition/non-recognition of diversity, in other words, social justice and injustice, are warmly welcome.

The conference will include plenary sessions, symposia, workshops, and panel sessions dedicated to issues such as: Educational Inequalities and Social Justice; Epistemologies and Decolonial Perspectives; Neoliberalism in/and Education; Policy and Governance in Education; Teaching, Learning, and Professionalism; Civicness, Citizenship, and Intercultural Education; Diversity and Inclusion; Gender and Social Justice; Digitalization and Technology; Space and Art; Young People in/and Education; Ecological Justice in/and Education. Further details on the conference panel sessions may be found on the conference website.

“Scuola Democratica” invites researchers, teachers and practitioners to submit abstract proposal pertaining to Education and/for Social Justice.

Abstract proposals can be submitted until February 10, 2024 on the conference platform.